

Bagchis Donate Chair Professorship In Public Health At Ahmedabad University

NewsWorld Press

Dec 17, 2020

Pic Credit score: indiawhispers

Ahmedabad: Famous Odia author Susmita Bagchi and her famed entrepreneur husband Subroto Bagchi, the co-founder of Mindtree, have endowed a Chair Professorship in public well being at Ahmedabad College.

Ahmedabad College has introduced the Faculty of Public Well being and is on the lookout for a Dean to guide the college. The Dean's chair could be known as the Susmita and Subroto Bagchi Professorship in Public Well being.

Susmita Bagchi, an eminent Odia author who writes in Odia and English, has been conferred with Odisha Sahitya Akademi Award in 1992 for her quick story assortment known as Akasha Jeunthi Katha. She is the Chairperson of the Mo Faculty Programme in Odisha. Subroto Bagchi is an extremely revered enterprise chief, a prolific enterprise author, and an establishment builder. The federal government of Odisha has appointed him because the Chairman of the Odisha Talent Growth Authority.

Vice Chancellor of Ahmedabad College, Pankaj Chandra mentioned, "This Chair Professorship supports our interdisciplinary perspective around problem solving and is a very important step towards attracting the best minds of the world to our upcoming School of Public Health. This gift allows the University to seed teaching and research in one of the most critical areas of our times. It will also allow us to establish a research programme around data and evidence in public health. We are grateful to Mrs and Mr Bagchi, who have been long term supporters of the university, for their contribution towards the cause of public health and education in India.”

(With IANS Inputs)